

Nature Tour

GRAD

Recently, a group from Homestead Apartments went on a hike together through the woods. Using their trusty compass, they were able to visit every clearing, leaving letters on the trees around them, putting the most important letters across from their paired initials.

Entertainment offered by some parks (+) A M U S R

Ingest again (-) m

Overwhelming or surrounding (-) U

Divided into three pieces (+) T

One who changes tracks used by a train (+) T

Impossible to observe (+) A N T E M

Very flat, perhaps like a plain cookie (+) I

A piece of mail sent to a celebrity (-) L

Places to buy bestsellers or sip coffee (-) T

Legume often grown by gradeschoolers (-) B B

Closer to the audience, in the theatre (+) N

Oral hygiene liquid (+) M

Item unlike a sword or gun (+) A

Something black and white and read all over (-) W

Periods of intense joy (-) Y

Rearrange or get rid of again (+) E

Water-taxi (+) A

In a manner similar to part of the eye (+) A

President Franklin D. or Theodore (+) E

Moving like a Nike logo (+) O

One who possesses acreage (-) O

Meaningless jargon popular in marketing material (+) N

The Garden State (+) C

It might be measured during a sleep study (+) N

Some limitations on trade (+) O